

Pan India Paryatan Pvt. Ltd., awarded Business Intelligence (BI) / Analytics IT category award at the InformationWeek EDGE Award 2014

September 16, 2014 11:36 AM

MUMBAI : Pan India Paryatan Pvt. Ltd., has been awarded Business Intelligence (BI) / Analytics IT category award, on 5th September 2014, by the InformationWeek EDGE Award 2014, held at INTEROP, Bombay Convention & Exhibition Centre, Mumbai.

InformationWeek, from UBM group, invited nominations for projects from IT heads of user organizations and from system integrators, partners who would like to submit details of projects on their client's behalf, which they have implemented, deployed, completed in the year 2013. Over 200+ nominations were submitted by various companies across India for the award which was won by PIPPL in Business Intelligence (BI)/ Analytics IT category.

Krishna Dhumal, Sr. Manager – IT, PIPPL, received the award from Mr. Vinit Goenka who is the BJP National IT Cell Co-Convener, India Head-E-Governance, ICT Industry Interface & Policy Issues and a Trustee/Hon. Secretary for various Social Organizations.

Mr. Shirish Deshpande, CEO - Pan India Paryatan Pvt. Ltd. said, “Keeping in step with the best technological advancements, we strive for perfection in every aspect of our business. While creating an inclusive culture where employees are empowered to perform their best and excel in their careers, we’re honored to be recognized for our commitment and hard work.”
