Universal Studios Japan announces opening date of Super Nintendo World

Universal Studios Japan will officially open its Super Nintendo World expansion on March 18 after delaying it due to COVID-19.

Super Nintendo World was set to launch in Japan on February 4. However, the grand opening was recently postponed following the declaration of a State of Emergency in Osaka Prefecture.

Rides and attractions at the themed expansion include Mario Kart: Koopa's Challenge and Yoshi's Adventure, as well as Bowser Jr. Shadow Showdown.

"Think of Super Nintendo World as a life-size, living video game where you become one of the characters. You're not just playing the game; you're living the game, you're living the adventure," said Thierry Coup, senior VP and CCO, Universal Creative.
